

General Information – Apples

Royal Gala

Scientific Name: Malus domestica 'Gala'

Originating in New Zealand Royal Gala is a white fleshed apple with a crisp and sweet to taste.

Available from February to July

Braeburn

Scientific Name: Malus domestica 'Braeburn'

The Braeburn apple has a sweet taste to start with a slightly tart finish. Braeburn has a white juicy and crisp flesh.

Available from March to August.

Fuji

Scientific Name: Malus domestica 'Fuji'

The Fuji is the sweetest tasting of apples with a crisp white flesh.

Available from March to August.

New Zealand Queen

Scientific Name: Malus domestica 'Queen'

New Zealand Queen is white fleshed sweet tasting apple, which is juicy and very crisp.

Available from March to June.

New Zealand Rose

Scientific Name: Malus domestica 'Rose'

New Zealand Rose is a very crisp and sweet apple with a distinctive pink reddish skin colour.

Available from March to July.

Granny Smith

Scientific Name: Malus pimila

The granny smith apple with its distinctive green skin and its refreshingly tart taste.

Available from April to June.

